

I Hate Plastic

DJ Kai

Living longer, will take you time
So don't lose my minutes,
They're only mine
I got no moments to waste

Blue elephants, vanilla peach,
You're life is based on,
on make beliefs
A glimpse of truth I do crave

Feels like I've been waiting my whole life
Feels like I've been waiting my whole life
For a bit of realness in between lies
Took some time to realise,
I Hate Plastic

I Hate Plastic

Took some time to realise,
I Hate Plastic

As Innocent, as words can feel,
They sometimes hurt,
Just be sincere
Some talk has no limits in sight

And If you are, misunderstood,
Then pardon me,
We are all good
Maybe we've been waiting our whole life

Feels like I've been waiting my whole life
Feels like I've been waiting my whole life
For a bit of realness in between lies
Took some time to realise,
I Hate Plastic

I Hate Plastic

Took some time to realise,
Bitter sweet, catastrophe

I leave it all, behind of me
If you didn't get it here's a reprise
I don't want more plastic

(feels like I've been waiting my whole life)

Feels like I've been waiting my whole life
Feels like I've been waiting my whole life
For a bit of realness in between lies
Took some time to realise,
I Hate Plastic
