

This Is For You

Lisa Peterson

Lyrics: Aleena Gibson

Am I strong enough to take on this world alone
Am I brave enough
I'm drifting further and further from home

And from where I stand it looks kind of high but I'm still jumping in

'cause I will try for you and do what you said I could do
And though you might never know how much I miss you it's all I do
This is for you
This is for you

When I feel the wind blow
I know that you're here with me
It's time to let go But I'm holding on to the memories

'cause from where I stand it looks kind of far but you're holding my hand

I will try for you
and do what you said I could do
And though you might never know
How much I miss you
it's always do
This is for you
This is for you
